OPINION SUMMARY

Carol Fendler ("Claimant") appeals the decision of the Labor and Industrial Relations Commission denying her unemployment benefits on the ground that she was discharged for misconduct connected with her work.

REVERSED AND REMANDED.

Division Five holds: There was no evidence in the record to indicate that Claimant willfully, deliberately, or purposefully refused to follow instructions, and therefore, the Commission's decision was not supported by competent and substantial evidence.

Opinion by: Glenn A. Norton, J. and Ben Burkemper, Sp. J., concur

Kurt S. Odenwald, C.J., dissents.

Attorneys for Appellant: Timothy A. Weil (Rule 13) and John J. Ammann

Attorney for Respondent: Ninion S. Riley

THIS SUMMARY IS NOT PART OF THE OPINION OF THE COURT. IT HAS BEEN PREPARED FOR THE CONVENIENCE OF THE READER AND SHOULD NOT BE QUOTED OR CITED.
